Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
It will be a foggy start across parts of England and Wales, with the fog slow to clear in places. Eastern areas may see the odd spot of drizzle at times, but elsewhere it'll be largely dry, with some sunshine developing in the west and north through the day.

Outlook for Friday and Saturday:
It will be another foggy start for some central and eastern areas on Friday, but the fog should lift slowly through the day with some bright or sunny spells at times, especially in the north and west. Saturday will be cloudy with some bright spells, with patchy rain in the west.
