++ Valid for broadcast at 2159

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Scotland and Northern Ireland cloudy, outbreaks of rain and drizzle chiefly across the west and far north of Scotland, perhaps some brighter spells over eastern Scotland at first. England and Wales dry with sunny skies after a chilly start, although cloud will increase in places later especially in the west.

Outlook for Wednesday and Thursday:

On Wednesday, further spells of rain across some northwestern parts of the UK especially western Scotland. Elsewhere mostly dry but cloudy, perhaps a little rain over northern and western hills and coasts. Much windier on Thursday, severe gales in the north, with rain then showers spreading south across all areas.
