at 1945 on Saturday 3 December 2005

** Valid for Broadcast at 2159 **

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow :
Showers will affect most parts of the UK along with some sunshine.
Northern and western areas will see the most frequent and heaviest showers whilst eastern and southern parts enjoy more in the way of sunshine and just a few showers. More persistent rain will affect Northeast Scotland and the Northern Isles. Temperatures near normal but with a chilly breeze over the far north and west.

Outlook for Monday and Tuesday:

Showers continuing to affect many parts with some sunny or clear spells. Feeling a little colder with patchy fog forming at night and local ground frost.
