Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Much of Scotland, Northern Ireland, Wales and Northwest England will be cloudy with outbreaks of rain at times. Elsewhere, some hazy sunshine but perhaps a sharp shower in the afternoon. Warmer in most areas, but feeling cooler in the wetter parts of the northwest.

Outlook for Friday and Saturday:
Further rain is expected in the far west and north on Friday with some warm sunshine in southern and eastern areas. There is a risk of some thundery showers later in the day here though. Further outbreaks of rain or thundery showers are likely to spread northeast across many parts of the UK on Saturday.
