++ Valid for broadcast at 2159

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
There will be a few more rain and sleet showers in eastern areas, with snow on the hills. Northern Ireland will be cloudy with a little light rain, drizzle or sleet here and there, especially in the west. Elsewhere, dry with early patches of frost, ice and fog clearing to leave sunny spells.

Outlook for Friday and Saturday:

Friday, mainly dry and bright in the east but windy weather with widespread rain will edge in from the west. Saturday will start wet and windy, with sleet and snow in many northern and eastern areas, but sunshine and showers will follow into southern and western areas.
