Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Northern Ireland, northwest England and Scotland will stay cloudy with occasionally heavy rain. Western areas of England and Wales will be cloudy and drizzly for much of the day. Elsewhere it should be generally dry with pleasantly warm sunny spells developing, especially in central areas. Brisk or sometimes strong westerly winds.

Outlook for Thursday and Friday:

Rain will spread to the southeast on Thursday, but becoming brighter elsewhere, with showers in Scotland and Northern Ireland and the northwest of England. Chillier with showers in northern areas on Friday, again drier and sunnier in the south. Breezy at times.
