Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
All parts can expected to see plenty of cloudy, wet and windy weather with some heavy rain likely at times, especially across more western parts. Brighter, more showery conditions will spread across northern parts during the day, but it will stay cloudy and wet in the south. A mild but windy day, with gales in exposed parts.

Outlook for Friday and Saturday:

A mixture of sunshine and blustery showers is expected across the UK on Friday, with the driest conditions in the southeast and a strong west or southwesterly wind. Wet weather will spread across all parts on Saturday and it will stay windy.
