

Forecast For The United Kingdom
Issued by Met Office Exeter
at 1945 on Saturday 10 Aug 2013

++ Valid for broadcast at 2159

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Morning showers across the southeast will clear during the early afternoon.
Otherwise, it will be a breezy day across the UK with some sunshine. Scattered showers will also develop across northern areas, turning heavy and possibly thunderous towards north and west Scotland.

Outlook for Monday and Tuesday:
Further sunshine and showers on Monday with the heaviest and most frequent showers across northern parts of the country. Tuesday will see some thicker cloud and outbreaks of rain spread east across northern and central areas.
Southern areas though should remain dry with spells of sunshine. Temperatures around normal but feeling warm in any spells of sunshine.
