Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Mist and fog at first for many but this should gradually clear. Cloud and light rain will spread northeastwards across the UK during the day, with southwest England and Wales becoming dry with some sunshine during the afternoon. Possibly remaining cloudier in the east. Another mild day.

Outlook for Friday and Saturday:

Dry in central and eastern areas at first on Friday but heavy rain in the west will push east through the day and overnight with scattered showers and bright spells following on Saturday. Further heavy rain and gales are expected to sweep in overnight Saturday.
