Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow :
Rain, heavy in places, in Wales and central England, spreading to the southwest and northeast of England, and clearing East Anglia. Sunny intervals and showers, perhaps thundery, developing in southern England and East Anglia. Rain also in northern Scotland, wintry on hills, and parts of Northern Ireland. Showers affecting southeast Scotland. Winds strengthening in southwest, decreasing in north. Feeling cold.

Outlook for Saturday and Sunday:
Saturday, rain in England and Wales slowly dying out. Sunny spells elsewhere, with showers on north-facing coasts. Winds decreasing.
Sunday, rain in England, Wales and Scotland clearing all but the southeast, followed by showers and sunny intervals. Strong southwesterly winds.
