Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
It will be a drier and brighter day for England and Wales in particular, with some sunny spells across the UK and a small chance of the odd light shower, more so towards the cloudier north and west. Despite the brighter weather, temperatures should remain similar to Monday.

Outlook for Wednesday and Thursday:
A relatively quiet period of weather for most, with some sunny spells and a few showers. The showers should remain most likely in the northwest, although there is a chance of some heavier and perhaps thundery showers grazing the far southeast on Wednesday.
