Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
A band of heavy rain across South Wales and the South Midlands will move northwards into North Wales and Northern England. Heavy and thundery showers will follow into the south but also some brighter spells. Scotland and Northern Ireland will have sunny spells but also a scattering of showers.

Outlook for Monday and Tuesday:
Outbreaks of rain will spread northwards across Wales and Central and Southern England on Monday but it will be brighter further north with a few showers. Further showers or longer spells of rain are likely across Wales and Central and Southern England on Tuesday, with just a few showers further north.
