++ Valid for broadcast at 2159

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
After a bright start, though with showers over Scotland, cloud and rain will spread quickly from the southwest to nearly all parts, except the far north. Eastern districts should see some sunshine before and after the rain, but southwestern districts will be mostly cloudy. South to southwest winds will strengthen.

Outlook for Tuesday and Wednesday:

Overnight rain clearing Scotland and Northern Ireland, followed by showers and sunny intervals during Tuesday. England and Wales more cloudy with outbreaks of rain and strong to gale force winds. Wednesday should be drier and brighter after rain clears the southeast. Quite windy and colder.
