Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:

Any early mist and fog will lift to leave a mixture of sunshine and showers, the showers heavier and more frequent than on Monday, especially in the northwest where thunder and hail are likely. Cloudier in the southeast with the chance of a few showers. Light or moderate southwesterly winds.

Outlook for Wednesday and Thursday:

Continuing unsettled, with showers for many areas, these most widespread in the northwest where they will be thundery at times. Thursday will be mostly dry and bright with spells of sunshine across central and eastern parts. Temperatures around normal but breezy at times.
