Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
After a chilly start to the day, becoming warm and dry again across the UK with plenty of sunshine and light winds, although again some cloud developing inland, obscuring the sun at times. A little cloudier also towards northwestern parts too. Sea breezes will develop around coasts during the afternoon.

Outlook for Monday and Tuesday:
Continuing fine, dry and warm during Monday with plenty of sunshine and light winds. Cloud and rain will begin to edge into western parts of the UK during Tuesday, but shouldn't reach eastern areas until night-time, so staying dry and pleasantly warm here during the day.
