Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow :
Largely dry with sunny spells on Wednesday. However, some showers are also expected. These will mostly be in the west, but isolated, locally heavy, showers will spread further east through the day. Rather warm in the sunshine.

Outlook for Thursday and Friday:

Rain in the west initially will spread east across all parts on Thursday. Some heavy rain will affect the west, but it will become brighter there later. Windy. Sunny spells and blustery showers generally on Friday, perhaps with some more persistent spells of rain. Northern Scotland and southernmost England will be cloudy with occasional rain. Rather windy. Temperatures near normal.
