Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Most areas will see sunny periods and showers. Some of the showers are likely to be heavy and thundery with a risk of hail. There is also a chance of sleet or snow over the highest parts of the UK. Northeastern parts of Scotland will see more persistent rain during the day. Remaining breezy throughout.

Outlook for Wednesday and Thursday:

It will remain unsettled with sunny periods and further showers, some of which will be heavy and perhaps thundery. The showers may also be wintry over northern hills. Daytime temperatures will be generally near normal for the time of year, but overnight frosts remain possible,.
