Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Eastern areas will be dry, bright and warm with some sunshine in the southeast, though cloud will increase during the afternoon. The west of the UK will be cloudy with patchy light rain and drizzle, along with some mist and low cloud over windward coasts and hills.

Outlook for Tuesday and Wednesday:

A cloudy start on Tuesday with a band of rain moving down from the northwest, followed by sunshine and showers in the north. A brighter day on Wednesday with some sunshine in the south. Sunny spells and scattered showers over central and northern parts, but clouding over later with some rain.
