Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Cloudy, wet and windy weather is expected across Scotland, where severe gales are likely for a time, and parts of N.Ireland and northern England. In Wales and the rest of England, largely dry conditions are expected with sunny breaks, particularly in the south and east.

Outlook for Saturday and Sunday:
Dry in the south again, although often rather cloudy. Rain at times in Scotland, locally heavy about western highlands, extending to parts of Northern Ireland and north England for a period on Saturday, before easing and becoming more patchy on Sunday. Windy, with gales in the north, easing during Sunday.
