Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
It will be largely sunny and very warm across England and Wales again, although some low cloud and patchy drizzle is possible in western coastal areas making it feel cooler there. Further north and west it will be less warm and cloudier, with some light rain in the far northwest of Scotland.

Outlook for Tuesday and Wednesday:
Much of the UK will stay fine and very warm with plenty of sunny spells, although a few showers may develop in northern England on Tuesday. Northwestern parts of Britain will remain cooler and cloudier with some light rain at times.
