Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Cloudy in the morning across the country, with rain in western areas, heavy in the southwest and far northwest. Through the day rain will move through central southern areas, but elsewhere it will brighten a little, with temperatures becoming warm in the east for a time. Western areas will have a bright if blustery end to the day.

Outlook for Sunday and Monday:
Becoming windy in the northwest on Sunday, where it will also be wet with plenty of rain. Brighter in the south with occasional showers. Monday will see storm force winds and more rain in the northwest, with gales in many other areas.
