++ Valid for broadcast at 0858

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom until dawn tomorrow:
It'll be a dry day with plenty of warm sunshine being seen, although it will be cloudier at first in some northern parts and it'll also feel cooler on the east coast. A dry night will follow with largely clear skies and the odd mist or fog patch across the south, whilst there will be more cloud in the north.

Outlook for Friday and Saturday:
It'll be dry, bright and breezy for many on Friday. However cloud will spread into western parts bringing rain to Northern Ireland for the afternoon and this will spread eastwards through Saturday with brighter, showery, and breezy conditions following later.
