Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Showers will continue to affect many northern and western parts of the United Kingdom with some of these heavy and thundery. The showers will fall as snow over hills, and to lower levels across Scotland. Other parts of the UK will see bright spells and occasional rain. It will remain cold and breezy in all areas.

Outlook for Monday and Tuesday:
Further showers will affect northern and western parts of the UK, and again these will be wintry over hills and mountains, and to low levels in Scotland at times. Other parts of the UK will see bright spells but with rain at times.
