Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Another fine day across the UK on Wednesday. Any localised early mist or fog patches will soon clear, then turning warm with sunny spells. The best of the sunshine will tend to be in the west, with little more cloud likely across some eastern and southeastern counties.

Outlook for Thursday and Friday:

Dry and settled with variable cloud on Thursday. The best of the warm sunshine most likely across western parts, then another chilly night in the north. Variable amounts of cloud on Friday with some bright or sunny spells. Another dry day across the UK.
