Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Dry for much of England and Wales with good spells of sunshine, while Scotland and Northern Ireland see some rain, this heavy for a time across Scotland before clearing. It will be hot in the sunshine in the Southeast, but further north into Scotland it will feel cool under the rain.

Outlook for Saturday and Sunday:

Rain is expected in northern and western parts on Saturday, but southern and eastern areas see another dry, sunny and very warm day, reaching hot in the Southeast. Most places should be dry on Sunday with sunny spells, but a few showers in northwestern parts of the UK.
