Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Outbreaks of rain across Scotland are expected to spread south into northern England. Rain may turn to snow in parts of northern and eastern Scotland through the afternoon and evening. Elsewhere, there may be some bright spells at first, although it will turn mainly cloudy with some showers developing, mainly across the Midlands and north Wales.

Outlook for Tuesday and Wednesday:
Tuesday will turn colder as rain, sleet and snow spreads south. This will be accompanied by brisk northeasterly winds. Then, another cold and windy day on Wednesday with a few wintry showers. Thursday is expected to be cloudy with some rain in the northwest.
