Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Southern England and Wales will be rather cloudy with a few showers at times, but some warm and bright spells are likely too, increasingly so through the afternoon. It will be cooler and sunnier further north, although windy with scattered showers in the far north and northwest of Scotland.

Outlook for Thursday and Friday:

Bright and breezy in the north on Thursday, cloudier with some drizzle in the south, but becoming drier with sunny spells later. Wet and windy weather will move slowly southeastwards from northwest Scotland late Thursday to lie across western England and Wales by late Friday, drier with sunny spells further south..
