++ Valid for broadcast at 2159

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Cloud and outbreaks of rain over southern Britain will spread northwards to affect the rest of England and Wales, as well as southern Scotland. Some of the rain will be heavy and prolonged, especially over Wales and parts of central England. It will become quite humid in the south.

Outlook for Sunday and Monday:
Heavy rain will linger over Scotland and Northern Ireland during much of Sunday, showery outbreaks of rain elsewhere mostly clearing away to the east. On Monday, some showers in northwest Britain, otherwise fine and sunny for the rest of Britain. Breezy at first.
