Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Cloudy across most of England, Wales and Northern Ireland in the morning, but brighter in Scotland. There will be some showers in Scotland, but other western areas will be rather damper with rain on hills much of the day, but never particularly heavy. Drier in eastern areas.

Outlook for Friday and Saturday:
Cloudy across much of the country with rain in northern areas. Some favoured eastern areas will get some sunshine at times, and this will feel pleasantly warm. However Saturday will be a cooler day with strong or very strong winds in the north, and cloud with occasional rain for all.
