++ Valid for broadcast at 2159

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
It will be bright with some sunshine in northern and eastern parts. However, in the south and west it will be cloudy with occasional outbreaks of rain. Cloud and further rain will slowly spread northeastwards from the afternoon and through the evening.

Outlook for Friday and Saturday:

Breezy with rain for most to start Good Friday. Wind and rain then easing with drier, albeit fairly cloudy conditions developing. Staying largely dry with light winds on Saturday, aside from the far northwest where some patchy light rain is possible. Generally cloudy, but with some sunny spells too and it will feel pleasantly warm in these.
