++ Valid for broadcast at 2159

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Northeastern England, parts of the Midlands and eastern Wales will be cloudy with patchy light rain and drizzle. Further west and south it will be mainly dry with variable cloud allowing some bright or sunny intervals to develop. In Scotland and Northern Ireland patchy fog and frost will clear to leave a mainly dry day with variable cloud.

Outlook for Wednesday and Thursday:

We can expect a mixed bag on Wednesday and Thursday with variable, often large, amounts of cloud, along with patchy and chiefly light rain and drizzle. Northern and western areas should be generally driest and brightest, with sunshine breaking through in places.
