Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Cloud and rain will clear Northern Ireland, Scotland and later northern England, sunny spells following from the west along with a few isolated showers. Wales and the rest of England will stay mostly cloudy with occasional light rain and drizzle, although many central and eastern areas should stay dry for much of the day.

Outlook for Saturday and Sunday:

On Saturday, rain across southern and central areas, some heavy and prolonged in the south. Brighter in the north with sunny spells and isolated showers. Turning wet and windy on Sunday as gales and heavy rain spread from the west.
