++ Valid for broadcast at 2159

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Rather cloudy in southern UK with spells of mostly light rain, whilst the far north of Scotland sees blustery showers. Driest and brightest in between, across Northern Ireland, northern England and southern Scotland. The rain in southern parts will edge northeastwards as the day progresses, turning heavy at times, with strong winds picking up across the west.

Outlook for Sunday and Monday:

Showers and winds progressively easing in northern UK, with drier, brighter conditions following on. Southern UK will see sunny spells and a few showers on Sunday, with southern and especially southeastern UK likely to see heavy and occasionally thundery showers later on Monday.
