Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Parts of Northern Ireland, Scotland, Wales and the north and west of England will see further sleet and snow. The rest of England will start icy, then slowly becoming brighter with a few wintry showers particularly along south facing coasts.

Outlook for Wednesday and Thursday:
The cold spell will continue with further spells of rain, sleet and snow in all areas. Wednesday is looking more showery with some brighter spells. Windy in the north and west with gales . Thursday some sleet/snow showers with the risk of more prolonged snow over higher ground in Wales and north west England. Windy in the north.
