Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Parts of eastern England are likely to start fairly cloudy and breezy with a few showers, but conditions should soon improve here. Otherwise, fine and dry in many places with light winds and some sunshine. A few sharp showers are likely across the Midlands and northwest England, but fewer and lighter than today's showers.

Outlook for Monday and Tuesday:

On Monday, eastern areas starting dry and fine, but spells of rain already in the west pushing eastwards, sometimes heavy and accompanied by strong southerly winds. Tuesday, brighter with sunshine and blustery showers in northern parts, mostly dry but breezy in the south.
