Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
It will be feeling warm with plenty of sunshine across the UK throughout tomorrow. There will be cloud at times in the west and this could even bring the odd shower for some. Temperatures are likely to be even higher than yesterday, reaching 26 Celsius in the south-east.

Outlook for Monday and Tuesday:

On Monday and Tuesday, it will be a cloudy picture across the southern half of the UK with some prolonged rainfall, which may turn heavy or perhaps thundery on Tuesday. However in the northern half of the UK, it will be a sunny and warm start to the week.
