Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Overnight patchy mist and fog will clear steadily during the early morning, and then it will be another dry day with plenty of sunshine for much of England and Wales. However, Northern Ireland and much of Scotland will be cloudier with the Western Isles of Scotland and Highlands seeing a little rain later.

Outlook for Monday and Tuesday:
Most places dry on Monday and Tuesday with some bright or sunny spells by day and some patchy mist or low cloud overnight. However, some patchy rain will affect northwestern parts of Scotland and Northern Ireland. Perhaps also some cloud and drizzle east coasts on Monday.
