Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom until dawn tomorrow:
Often cloudy in the north and west today, with outbreaks of rain gradually easing. Brighter in the east with some sunny spells but also a few showers, some of which could be heavy and thundery, and slow moving. A few showers possible just about anywhere overnight, with patchy rain likely for some central parts of the UK.

Outlook for Thursday and Friday:

Bright or sunny spells on Thursday, with scattered showers, some of which will be heavy with the risk of thunderstorms, which will be slow moving with light winds. Further heavy and thundery showers on Friday, with some persistent heavy rain in the north.
