Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
A cloudier but milder day across the UK, with occasional outbreaks of rain, especially on western facing hills and coasts. Some brighter spells will develop, especially through the afternoon, and mainly to the east of hills. Another breezy day, especially in the north.

Outlook for Monday and Tuesday:

Very windy on Monday with severe gales across the northwest. Turning clearer and colder with showers in the north, wintry at times. Feeling very cold. Still windy and cold on Tuesday, with more widespread showers, heaviest and most frequent in the west. The showers wintry, with snow over hills, and occasionally to lower levels in heavier bursts.
