Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Rain for northern and western Scotland, which will be heavy at times, especially over western facing hills. Gradually clouding over across Northern Ireland throughout the day. Windy for both Scotland and Northern Ireland. Elsewhere, largely dry and sunny after a chilly, occasionally misty start. Feeling pleasantly warm in the sunshine with just a light breeze.

Outlook for Friday and Saturday:

Friday and Saturday will both be largely cloudy in the north with some outbreaks of rain at times, chiefly for Scotland, but occasionally a little further south. Dry with prolonged sunny spells further south, and becoming increasingly warm in the southeast.
