++ Valid for broadcast at 2159

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
It will be a cloudy and damp start in the south, but clearing quickly.
Otherwise, there will be sunshine through the day. Southern parts will stay dry, but those in the north will see showers in between the sunny spells.

Outlook for Saturday and Sunday:

On Friday night it will turn wet and windy, leaving a grey, wet start to Saturday in the south. Northern parts will be brighter with a few showers, and these will be wintry over the mountains. It should clear up in the south later too, leaving a cold, sunny day on Sunday, with showers only around coastal regions.
