Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:

A mainly dry and cloudy start across the UK, especially in the south with some patchy light rain and drizzle possible. Brighter across northern parts with some sunshine. Warm through the afternoon, with the best of the sunshine generally near coastal regions. Perhaps the odd spot of light rain moving into the far west of Northern Ireland late evening.

Outlook for Sunday and Monday:

It will largely cloudy for many, with the best of the sunny intervals across southern and eastern parts of the UK. Feeling warm or very warm with gentle southerly winds. Cooler to the north and west with occasional rain and drizzle.
