 Valid for Broadcast at 2159 **

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow :
Outbreaks of rain across Scotland, Northern Ireland and northern England will clear northwards to become confined to the far north of Scotland by evening. Brighter skies will follow from the south.
Across Wales and southern England, some bright or sunny spells as well but with showers spreading northeast, some heavy and prolonged.
It will become windy again in the west with renewed gales for southwest England and parts of Wales. Temperatures near normal but feeling colder in wind and rain.

Outlook for Friday and Saturday:
Becoming less windy and mostly dry with a few bright or sunny intervals.
