Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Any early mist will clear as the sun comes up and for most people it should be a pleasantly warm and sunny day. There will be some cloud around, chiefly along eastern coasts and later in the afternoon cloud will develop further inland towards the Midlands. Fresh southeasterly winds in the west.

Outlook for Sunday and Monday:
Western Scotland and Northern Ireland will be cloudy with some light rain on Sunday. Elsewhere it should stay dry with the best of the sunshine in southern and eastern parts. The weather will be generally cloudier and cooler on Monday with some rain in the north and west.
