Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Early mist and low cloud affecting eastern areas will thin and break through the morning leaving a largely dry and bright day with plenty of warm sunshine. Through the afternoon a few showers will develop across parts of Scotland, Northern Ireland and northern England.

Outlook for Monday and Tuesday:
Another largely settled day on Monday with plenty of dry and bright weather, although a few showers may develop over Scotland through the afternoon. There will be a marked change into Tuesday as it turns cloudier, windier and wetter from the west with rain affecting Scotland, Northern Ireland, Wales and western parts of England.
