++ Valid for broadcast at 2159

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Central and eastern England will have warm sunshine after a grey start. However, one or two thundery showers may develop during the afternoon. Elsewhere, it will be mostly cloudy with outbreaks of rain, some of this heavy in the far west, though Northern Ireland may brighten at times. It will be very warm in the sunnier east.

Outlook for Monday and Tuesday:

Rain across western areas should gradually die out on Monday with brighter and mostly dry weather in the east slowly spreading westwards. Tuesday will be dry and very warm with some sunshine, though eastern coasts may be rather grey and misty at times.
