Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow :
Most southern counties of England and south Wales will have a few sunny intervals and noticeably more cloud than today, along with light showers. Meanwhile the rest of England, north Wales and Northern Ireland can expect a mixture of sunshine and some showers, which may turn heavy in places. Across Scotland, sunny intervals and showers are also likely with a number turning heavy and perhaps including hail and thunder, while over the higher hills, the showers will be wintry.
Otherwise, most regions will be breezy and feel chilly.

Outlook for Tuesday and Wednesday:
All areas can expect more showers with some on the heavy side.
