++ Valid for broadcast at 0858

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom until dawn tomorrow:
There will be outbreaks of rain across the far north of Scotland today, with scattered showers across the remainder of Scotland, Northern Ireland and northern England. Further south there will be a few light showers, mostly in Wales and the southwest this morning, but also some sunshine. A little showery rain in the west tonight but dry further east.

Outlook for Sunday and Monday:
Sunday, scattered heavy showers across Scotland, Northern Ireland and northern England. Wales and central England will have isolated showers but southern England will be generally dry with sunny spells. Monday, rain in the northwest later but dry and fine elsewhere.
