Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Most areas will be dry with light winds on Easter Sunday. It will be often cloudy, but it'll feel warm where the sun appears, with brighter skies in northern and western parts. Temperatures will reach highs of 15 degrees Celsius (59 C).

Outlook for Monday and Tuesday:

It will remain largely dry on Easter Monday and during Tuesday, but we could see some odd spots of rain in the north. Although fairly cloudy, some bright spells and warm sunshine will develop in places, along with patchy overnight frost and fog. Maximum temperatures will reach 16 or 17 degrees Celsius (61 or 63 F).
