++ Valid for broadcast at 2159

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Rain, heavy and persistent in places, will affect western Scotland for much of the day. Northern Scotland will see a good deal of cloud and some patchy rain. For the rest of the UK, some bright or sunny spells and a scattering of mainly light showers. Breezy, particularly in the north, and still feeling rather cool.

Outlook for Monday and Tuesday:

Rain will return to many areas ,away from northern Scotland, on Monday, with the heaviest rain likely across the high ground of Wales and northwest England. Further rain on Tuesday, particularly in the north and west. Warmer and rather humid in the south.
